Suggested affordable brands for paints:

Winsor & Newton Acrylics, Liquitex Acrylics, Golden's Acrylics. You can buy, for example, a Liquitex Basics Acrylic set or other set. Reeves or Artist Loft are very cheap solution, but will also work. Names of colors in different sets may vary. If you don't plan to paint a lot with acrylics, a set with small tubes will be fine.

Paintbrushes:

- Flat, Size 4, synthetic
- Round, Size 2, soft synthetic
- Round, Size 8, synthetic
- Flat, Size 14, synthetic
- Bright, Size 8, synthetic or bristle
- Filbert, Size 8, synthetic or bristle

These are approximate sizes. You may want to have several small, including round and flat/angular flat, and several big ones, like bright and filbert. Buying a brush set is a good option.

Types of brushes:

Painting surface - canvas pads, watercolor paper, or high-density mixed media paper. If you prefer working with paper, please bring a board and masking tape to stretch the paper on the board. Paper size – approx. 11x15 or 12x18 if in pads. Also, you can buy loose paper sheets and cut them. Canvas pads or stretched canvases are good but not necessary for acrylic painting. They can be any size. You may opt for paper only.

Plastic palette

rag/paper towels, soap for clean-up water cups preferably with lids

color wheel of any size

board and masking tape to stretch the paper

I usually provide tabletop easels, but you are welcome to bring your own, if you have one.
